FLU EPIDEMIC IS AGAIN ON WANE

Sixteen Cases Reported Saturday and Twenty Sunday—State Predicts New Outbreak.

The influenza epidemic in the city is on the wane. Saturday's report shows the lowest number of cases to be reported since the outbreak of the epidemic. Only 16 cases were reported for that day. On Friday there were 18 cases, but today's report for Sunday, while not complete, registers 20 new cases. There were no deaths reported yesterday.

The situation here seems to be in keeping with that over the state. The state department today stated it was on the wane in most of the communities, but that a recurrence could be expected around the holidays. They base the prediction on the fact that the Christmas shopping and Christmas home-gatherings will increase and spread the disease.

The Y. M. C. A. today announces that following the instructions of the health board, the "Y" will suspend all classes and meetings which include boys under 16 years of age.

In a statement today the secretaries say: "We regret very much that the schedule of health work has been materially interfered with by the ban because of the selfishness of people who have influenza and are not willing to absent themselves from public places until forced to do so that lives have been lost and much beneficial activity has been interrupted at a time when it is especially needed."

STATE REPORTS SHOW

Columbus, Dec. 16.—Though the second outbreak of influenza is now beginning to subside according to Acting State Health Commissioner Bauman, he predicted today that another flare-up will be noted about Christmas as a result of spread of the disease by Christmas shoppers and at Christmas celebrations. This third general outbreak, Bauman predicted, however, will not be as extensive as the previous one because the field will be more restricted.

More than 21,000 new cases were reported to the state health board last week, but the actual number of new cases, Bauman said, probably would amount to 100,000, as not more than one-fifth generally are reported. Only in a few instances is the virulence of the disease as pronounced as during the first outbreak, Bauman stated. In Greenville, the death rate is said to be as high as at first.

The annual mid-winter meeting of the Ohio State Teachers association was cancelled today. State Superintendent of Instruction P. B. Penrose announced, because of the epidemic. It was said to have been held in Columbus December 25 to 28.

Though the present outbreak is at its first epidemic was confined chiefly to adults, Bauman said its virulence among children is less pronounced than among grownups. Very few deaths are recorded among children, he said.

Geneva, Sunday, Dec. 15.—Germany made a great blunder in entering the war and should admit that she was in the wrong, declared the Grand Duchess Anastasia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, mother of the former German crown princess, in an interview today. The grand duchess, who is a Russian and a cousin of the late Russian emperor, came to Geneva at the outbreak of the war and now is about to go to the Riviera for her health.

Replying to a question about the former emperor and the former prince she said pathetically:

"There is a splendid maxim in your language: 'Don't hit a man when he is down.' Let us observe this principle, this supporting principle, during our conversation."

"I think that Germany made a great blunder in entering into this terrible struggle," continued, "not only from a humane point of view but also for political and commercial reasons as her commerce was prosperous. Now she has lost all. Germany should recreate a political, financial and artistic nation by openly admitting:

"We acted wrongly; we are sorry."

The grand duchess made an appeal for help for her country of her birth, saying: "If the allies abandon Russia, Russia is lost. The allies do not seem to understand the situation clearly. About 75 per cent of the Russians have respect for only two things—God and the Czar. The peasants how say: 'We have no czar whom we can turn to. It will take the population fifty years to understand the meaning of the words republic and president. The Russian people want some one to worship because it is an old custom, their religion and their lives. Let the allies take note and help poor Russia before it is too late'."

Berlin, Dec. 16.—Adolph Joffe, Russian ambassador to Germany who was expelled from Berlin in November because of his activities in advancing the interests of the Bolsheviks, is reported in a Berlin dispatch to have crossed the frontier after bribing members of the soldiers and workmen's council. He is said to be returning to Berlin for the purpose of attending to the interests of the soldiers and workmen's congress in spite of the request of the Ebert cabinet that he keep away from this city.

Adolph Joffe was one of the prominent Bolshevik leaders in Russia before his appointment as ambassador to Germany in April, 1918. After his arrival at the German capital he made himself obnoxious to the government by preaching the revolutionary doctrines. He was arrested at Berlin on November 6 and expelled from the city. Documentary evidence of his activities was made public later of Berlin and Joffe admitted that he had planned with certain German leaders to bring about a Bolshevik revolution in Germany. The Ebert cabinet then cancelled the invitation given to the Russian government to send a delegation to the congress of soldiers and workmen's council. It is to be a training school for the sons of the soldiers of the great war, and two large farms in Bennington have been purchased by Everett for that purpose. The donor has not fully worked out the scope of the plan but has made a start and the beginning of the school will be under way. The two farms include about 340 acres of land, ideally situated for a school of horticulture and other branches which will be included in the curriculum of the new institution. The school has been incorporated under the laws of Vermont. One of the features of the school is that it does not limit the scope to the pupils of the sons of American soldiers, but opens the school to the sons of American and allied soldiers. The plan was to make a home as well as a school for boys. They can enter as young as ten years and will be given an academic education as well as training in horticulture and agriculture.

Declares Our Hearts Were Touched by Suffering
France and Belgium

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM
Paris, Dec. 16.—President Wilson delivered an address today at the city hall, where he remembered and been surprised for. The president replied to the greeting extended him.

"Your greeting has raised many emotions within me," the president began. "It is no ordinary sympathy that the people of the United States, for whom I have the privilege of speaking, have viewed the sufferings of the people of France. Many of our own people have been themselves witnesses of those sufferings."

"We were the more deeply moved by the wrongs of the war, because we know the manner in which they were perpetrated. I beg that you will not suppose that because a war has been waged in France we were not in effect eye-witnesses of the shameful ruin that was wrought and the cruel and unnecessary sufferings that were brought upon you. The sufferings have filled our hearts with indignation. We know what they were, not only but we know what they signified, and our hearts were touched to the quick by them, our imaginations filled with the whole picture of what France and Belgium in particular had experienced."

"When the United States entered the war, therefore, they entered it not only because they were moved by a conviction that the purposes of the armistice required more and must be resisted by men everywhere who loved liberty and the right, but also because of illicit ambitions which they were entertaining and attempting to realize and lead to practices which would hurt our hearts as much as they offended our principles."

"Our resolution was formed because we knew how profoundly great principles of right were affected, but our hearts moved also with our resolution: 'You have been exceedingly generous in what you have been gracious enough to say about me, generous far beyond my personal desires. You have interpreted with real insight the motives and resolution of the people of the United States. Whatever influence I exercise, whatever authority I speak with, I desire to be an agent of what they have thought, and know what they have desired, and when I have spoken what I know what was in their minds, it has been delightful to see how the consciences and purposes of free men everywhere have been moved. We have merely established our right to the full fellowship of those peoples here and throughout the world who reverence the right of genuine liberty and justice. You have made me feel very much at home here, not merely by the delightful warmth of your welcome, but also by the manner in which you have made me realize to the utmost the intimate community of thought and ideal which exists between your people and the great nation which I have the honor for the time to represent. BELIEVE LLOYD GEORGE COALITION VICTORIOUS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Sunday, Dec. 15.—Considering novel conditions under which yesterday's elections were held and the necessity of waiting for a fortnight before the ballots are counted, there is very little indulgence in speculation as to the result. It is universally admitted to be almost a foregone conclusion that the Lloyd George coalition has been victorious and will probably have some four hundred members in the new house of commons.

Greatest curiosity centers on the strength of the labor vote which under new conditions is an unknown quantity. It was because the labor party was determined to test its strength that it refused to compromise with liberal candidates in the three-cornered constituencies, although such a compromise would have given the anti-coalitionists much greater strength in the new parliament.

Political speculation is chiefly concerned with the reconstruction cabinet after the election. One rumor credits Premier Lloyd George with favoring the appointment of the first woman minister. The name of Pankhurst is mentioned in the list.

1087 SOLDIERS ARE RELEASED FROM CAMP

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Camp Sherman, Dec. 15.—One thousand and eighty seven soldiers were discharged here at noon today. Eleven men went to Columbus, 28 to Cincinnati, 73 to Cleveland, eight to Dayton, 13 to Toledo, 24 to Akron, two to Zanesville, six to Portsmouth, 11 to New York City, 13 to Philadelphia, 10 to Pittsburgh, 23 to Youngstown, nine to Chicago and four to Springfield.

Nearly every state in the union was represented among the men discharged.

GEN. SMUTS QUILTS BRITISH WAR CABINET

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Dec. 15.—Lieutenant General Jan Christian Smuts has resigned as member of the war cabinet on the ground that the end of the war has terminated the need of his services, according to the Express.

Jan Christian Smuts has long been a figure in the political life of South Africa. During the Boer war he was in command of the republican forces in Cape Colony. In 1917 he became commander of British forces in East Africa, fighting against the Germans, his success in that campaign being remarkable.

In January 1917, the British government named him a member of the imperial war conference as representative of the Union of South Africa and in June, 1917, he entered the war cabinet. His services to the British government since that period has been distinguished in many ways.

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND.
Tuesday and Wednesday.
Beautiful Betty Blythe, with Harry Morey, the star with steel in his eye, in "The Green God," a 100 per cent Blue Ribbon Feature, a mystery story in which a girl suspected of slaying the man who bought her, is freed by an avenging hand. Portrayed by two popular screen stars.

Thursday and Friday.
The fun of the "Blue Moon," the picture by Louis Joseph Vance in which the charming Davis Kemyon will appear at the Grand theatre on Thursday and Friday, tells a romantic and fascinating story. Some of the scenes are exceptionally picturesque and beautiful. The whole effort is artistic. The story is one of gripping human interest, full of complications, surprises and tensely dramatic incidents.

ALHAMBRA.
Tonight and Tomorrow.
Sidney Olcott, whose name marks a standard of artistic merit in film-making, has achieved additional laurels in the production of his spectacular heart interest drama, "The Belgian," which will have its initial presentation at the Alhambra tonight.
In "The Belgian" Mr. Whiteside's artistry is evident throughout. Not only does he depict with unerring England learned at the very beginning of the war that amusements were necessary and have encouraged them. Secretary McAdoo holds the same views. Theatres have been erected in all the large camps and the Al. G. Field Minstrels will appear in all theaters in the entertainment furnishing amusement for the boys in khaki.

Al. G. Field has always furnished clean amusements. His show is an institution. Growing as it has in popularity these many years, it is one of the events of the amusement season. Field's Show will come to the Auditorium theatre on Thursday afternoon and evening. Seats are ready tomorrow at 10 a. m.

"America's Answer" has furnished a great surprise for the movie fans. For the first time in history of motion picture exploitation in New York City the entire house was sold out, with the exception of Saturday and Sunday, for two weeks following the opening. This in itself would be interesting, but the especial novelty consisted in the fact that the house was bought out, night after night, by patriotic firms and clubs, which filled the theatre with their employees or members. The matinee performances were open to the public, but, with the exception of the nights noted, there

PRESIDENT ATTENDS 2 CHURCH SERVICES

Paris, Dec. 16.—President Wilson spent his first Sunday in Paris by going twice to church before a wreath on the tomb of Lafayette and having a brief conference with Premier Clemenceau and another with Colonel E. M. House. In the evening he rested, in preparation for the coming strenuous week of preliminary conferences.

In the morning the president, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and Admiral Grayson and secret service men, went to the American Presbyterian church in the Rue De Berri. His coming was known to only a few of the American colony, who had guessed that the president, being a consistent churchgoer, would choose a church of his own denomination.
Rev. Chalmers W. Goodrich, the pastor, took his text from the ninth verse of the ninth chapter of Isaiah. He dwelt on the necessity of imprecating political and civil life with idealism and showed how the evolution of humanity was reaching the last stage in the constitution of a society of nations. The edifice was filled but there was no special service. The president took part as he would if he had been at Central Presbyterian church in Washington.
In the afternoon President Wilson went to a church of Mrs. Wilson's denomination, as is the custom in Washrealism the invasion of the little kingdom of grief by the Huns, but he also has invested the narrative with heart interest and pathos that have combined to make it one of the most engrossing subjects of the season. The scenes in which Mr. Olcott visualizes the acts of Hunnish frightfulness are said to be without parallel on the screen today.

AUDITORIUM.
"For Husbands Only."
After spending more than a month in carefully working out the preliminary details of the production, Miss Lois Weber has just completed the staging of a new feature photoplay.
The story was "filmed under the story title "For Husbands Only" (merely a title, not a restriction). It will be shown first at the Auditorium theatre today as a Jewel Production. It may be said with safety that it will prove to be the cleverest and most fascinating subject Miss Weber's studio has yet produced. The famous woman director, who evolved the drama from an idea embodied in a magazine story by G. B. Stern, is responsible for a number of ingenious twists which are certain to startle and delight these theatre-goers who are fond of novelties.

Miss Mildred Harris, the little lady who created such an instantaneous success in "The Price of a Good Time," "Borrowed Clothes" and others, and who is the featured player in another Lois Weber production shortly to be released, is the star of "For Husbands Only."
A feature of Miss Weber's new production will be the appearance in many of the scenes of the Benito Lumsden, the renowned pupil of Ruth St. Denis and Ted Shawn. The settings in which they dance are among the most exquisite ever shown on the screen.

Miss Harris, now Mrs. Charlie Chaplin, is to be seen at the Auditorium for three days, starting today.

A Return of Old Favorites.
The boys of the minstrel brass band, or rather of the gold band, as the advertisements put it, is heard in the land again. Eugene Field immortalized the minstrel band. Rendering music with that peculiar swing that distinguishes it from all other bands, minstrelsy is the hour men's grand opera, has a warm place in the hearts of the populace. The announcement of the coming of the minstrels is always hailed with pleasure, and more particularly when it is the coming of that sterling organization headed by the dean of minstrelsy, Al. G. Field.
For about a third of a century this same Al. G. Field has conducted a minstrel show. A new show every year—is the way the bills put it. Whether it is new or not, it is always good.
In these days the public craves wholesome amusements. France and were no tickets on sale for the evening performance until August 13. The sale of the house on blue insured the financial success of the first two weeks of the engagement and at the same time created an army of exploiters to advertise the merits of the production.

Pinocchio, captured, etha-ma-ra du uuu. This feature comes to the Auditorium Friday and Saturday.

Auditorium Notes.
Pals First, the big Metro screen classics, featuring the late Harold Lockwood, will soon be screened at Newark's classy playhouse, "The Auditorium Theatre."
Owing to the great success of Charlie Chaplin in "Shoulder Arms" at the Auditorium, Mgr. Fenberg announces an early return of this feature. Chaplin in his latest Million Dollar comedies are shown exclusively at the Au-

MAY VISIT AREV'S XMAS AT EREVES XMAS
(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Dec. 15.—The American president will not be present at the fetes in honor of King Victor Emmanuel of Italy who arrives Thursday, according to the Echo de Paris, but it is probably that he and the king will exchange calls.

It is understood that Mr. Wilson may visit the American troops on Christmas and celebrate the day with them at Treves.

ington when he goes twice on Sunday. The church selected was the American Episcopal church of the Holy Trinity, the bishop of South Carolina officiating.

ANOTHER PRECEDENT IS SHATTERED BY WILSON

Paris, Dec. 16.—When President Wilson went to the tomb of Lafayette yesterday he insisted on taking his own wreath, contrary to the custom here, by which the florist delivers the wreath and the donor later makes the visit and leaves his card. The president sent Admiral Grayson to buy the wreath, and after some difficulty in explaining to the florist, who could not understand why the traditional custom was being broken, obtained it and drove to the tomb.
On his personal card President Wilson wrote this inscription:
"In memory of the great Lafayette from a fellow-servant of liberty."
Indirectly unannounced, the president drove to the old French cemetery where the amazed aged gate-keeper was almost too flustered to unlock the gates when he learned who his caller was. That news of the president's visit spread rapidly to the convent near by, and as he left he passed through lines of aged nuns, who came out to pay their respects to the American chief executive.

Mrs. Joseph McLean, 445 Jefferson street, Tiffin, O., writes:
"I have used the Month-Laxone for colds. Must say I find it better than any cough syrup I have ever used yet. I coughed night and day for a week. After I got the Month-Laxone to use the coughing stopped in three days, etc."
Just buy a 2 1/2-ounce bottle of Month-Laxone (it is really concentrated) and mix it with simple syrup, as per directions with lemon, and then you will have a whole pint of the finest, quickest cold, cough, and catarrh medicine you ever used, and no opiate or barbitates, either. Hundreds of thousands of people have made their own medicine to avoid expense and uncertainty.—AGV.

HEINRICH, AIR BATTLER IS FREE

Cable Received From Waldo Heinrich Declares He's Feeling Fine and Will Return Soon.

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, Dec. 16.—The following cablegram was received by Rev. and Mrs. J. Heinrichs, December 9:

"Liberated November 17th. Feeling fine; proceeding to Vichy. Base hospital for further treatment. Home before long. Merry Christmas."—Waldo. Mrs. Heinrichs predicts that their son Waldo, who has so many warm friends in Granville and Denison, will stop here for a few hours at least, en route to his parents in Chicago. He has been cited for valor; brought down in aerial combat; wounded in six places; kept in a German prison camp hospital for two months, and in a base hospital in France for further treatment.

In the Advocate's casualty list for Saturday appeared the name of Sergeant Arthur C. Wickenden of Toledo, as severely wounded. He is now in a hospital in France receiving treatment for a wound in the thigh, involving the sciatic nerve. Sergeant Wickenden belonged to the Denison class of '15, Beta Theta Pi, and was among those early to enlist for Y. M. C. A. work in France. He hastened home, however, to enlist for active service and was in the last big drive when wounded.

The flu seems to be abating in Granville, not many new cases being reported and those now under the doctor's care were reported at the Kappa Phi hospital on Saturday. Today the five convalescents remaining will be placed in comfortable quarters on the campus, until well enough to go home, and the sorority house will be closed. Nineteen girls, however, are in that improvised hospital, all of whom, save the above mentioned five, are nicely recovered, and able to travel.

The Kappa Phi Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. Mary K. Kapp, on Saturday evening. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock with covers laid for twenty, and at 7 o'clock the Christmas tree was disclosed bearing gifts from the members present, to "the house," a charming custom, charmingly observed.

Mrs. E. P. Cook has had encouraging letters from her son Owen Cook, who is in France with a company of engineers.

Fred Sheldon, who was with an artillery battery in the last drive "over there," wrote a card to his aunt, Miss Clara Sheldon, on "the day the last gun was fired," saying that he was safe and well.

Lieut. J. H. Sutton of Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., is visiting his Sigma Chi brothers for a few days.

Beta Theta Pi had as week-end guests Homer Wickenden of Camp Sherman and Frank Pease of Cleveland.

Clifford Lewis of New Philadelphia has come to the rescue of W. P. Ullman, the only and overworked druggist of the village, and will help with the unprecedented rush of business brought on by the flu, Christmas buying, etc.

Lieut. Herman G. Spencer, son of Prof. E. Spencer has received his discharge from Camp Taylor, Ky., and expects to re-enter Denison next term.

John Early, who has been discharged from Camp Sherman, is among the boys who expect to return to college in January.

John Rose is at home again from Camp Sherman with an honorable discharge from service.

Our Boys and Girls

Don't let your children get into the habit of slovenly speech. Take pains to encourage them to say just what they mean in the most expressive words that can be found. When they tell you what they have been doing during the day, praise the one who tells her little tale the most simply and clearly with all of the facts in their proper order.

When a glaringly unsuitable word is used, take the opportunity to speak about it at once and suggest a better one for the child to use. There will be no need to nag at the children on such points as these, as they will be only too glad to learn if given a chance and thank you when they have grown up.

It is by no means uncommon to hear a child singing to himself over his play, or shouting as he runs about the yard, and to discover that his songs or shouts consist of nothing but some uncomprehended words which he has picked up for the mere joy of hearing the rolling syllables.

Indian Club Exercise.
Indian clubs are inexpensive, require no special type of fastening, can be kept at hand for use at any time, can be easily carried when traveling and are one of the best means of exercising for beauty and health. Get a pair of clubs weighing not more than two pounds, and commence exercising with one club at a time. Stand erect, with chest thrown out, feet flat on the floor and slightly separated, and grasp the handles of the club close to the ball, giving full play to the wrists, and endeavor to attain the most graceful style. Standing as described, clubs held at sides, begin by elevating the left hand until it touches a little above the head, then drop the club, and allow it to describe a circle at the back. When the club starts to circle, give it a twist and the momentum of its weight will carry it around. At the completion of the circle, give the wrist a twist and bring it over the shoulder, resuming the first position and bringing the club in front of the chest.

The next exercise is intended to overcome the stiff and awkward condition of the wrists which is so much in evidence. Standing with clubs held at the sides, the arms are raised and extended outward in front of the chest as far as possible, arms crossed and palms turned outward. Raise the clubs slowly to arms length, letting them hang over the shoulders. This is a simple and light exercise and is of great benefit in strengthening and developing wrists, arms, neck and shoulders.

After the exchange of addresses Mr. Wilson will go through the corridor and up the stairs to the first floor buffet where luncheon will be served. On the way to the buffet the party will pass through the salons where guests of the day will be grouped.

Pass Along Inspiring Words.
Miss Etna V. Leighton, civic secretary of the National Security league, has started a "Me and You" lip to lip, American propaganda. In this the plan is that for every line uttered there shall be spoken an American truth. The truths are embodied in slogans taken from President Wilson's speeches, General Pershing's messages, and from literature sent out by the committee on public information, the National Security league and other organizations.

Miss Leighton is also advising club women, teachers, and other groups to write the slogans on slips of paper and to inclose them in all letters sent to France and Italy. These slogans to be written in the language of the country for which they are intended, so that they can be handed to soldiers and civilians.

Rheumatic Resident of Sandusky Home Gives This Title to Nerv-Worth.

Nerv-Worth is doing a wonderful work for debilitated soldiers at the Sandusky Home, and many of them are so grateful that they want fellow-sufferers to learn of their happy experience through the papers. Mr. Krafft is one of these, and this is what he said at Sandusky and consented to have published:

The Graham Drug Store—"I have been in a bad rheumatic condition for 15 years. Used two crutches most of the time and one all the time. Was also extremely nervous and could not get restful sleep. Tossed about the bed all night and was tired and worn out in the morning. My hands trembled so that it was difficult to hold anything. "I saw Nerv-Worth advertised and purchased a bottle and took it as directed and am glad to say it did the work. My nervousness is gone and I can now sleep soundly all night through. RHEUMATIC PAINS HAVE LEFT ME and I can now walk about without my crutch and am gaining strength daily. Nerv-Worth is the greatest remedy I have ever used or know of and is certainly 'the old man's best friend.' I shall always keep it on hand."

YANKEE ARMED GUARD CLASHEES WITH MEXICANS

New York, Dec. 16.—In a clash on November 8 between the army navy guard of the American steamship Monterey and Mexican customs guards at Tampico, one Mexican was killed, a Mexican soldier mortally wounded, and a chief gunner's mate named Berry in charge of the American guard, seriously hurt. This was learned yesterday with the steamers arrival here from Havana and Nassau, where she touched after leaving for Tampico.

Members of the armed guard and officers of the ship refused to discuss the incidents, but details were learned from passengers on board at the time. According to them the fight occurred shortly after 5 a. m. after members of the navy guard went to the rescue of Berry, who had been attacked. The Americans at first responded to the call without arms, but upon the Mexicans opening fire they secured their weapons and responded in kind.

The fight, passengers said, was brief, the Mexicans running away as soon as the Americans opened fire, leaving their dead and wounded. Later officials of the port took the matter into hand, the passengers asserted, and a demand was made upon the captain of the Monterey that the armed guard be delivered up to them pending an investigation.

"FLOPPER" GETS AWAY WITH ANCIENT TRICK

Two "flopers" hit the town Friday afternoon and as a result The Newark Electric store, Norton's store and Miss Bowman in West Church street are losers for various amounts. The "flopers" were dapper looking young men who walked in and asked the clerk for a cheap article and tendered a bill of large denomination in payment. After receiving his change he suddenly discovers that he has the right change for the article, asks for his bill back and then skillfully manipulates the change which he hands back. Chief Sheridan warns all merchants to beware of strangers with big bills and advises all clerks to keep a lookout for short change artists during the holiday rush.

CITY COUNCIL WILL HOLD MEETING TONIGHT

There will be a regular meeting of the city council this evening and quite a little business has piled up owing to the fact that there has been no meeting for a month. The gas rate ordinance, which has had its initial reading, is in the hands of the law committee and should be reported out this evening and will be given its second reading and its final disposal will take place the first meeting night in January. The telephone rate ordinance may also be reported out of the service and law committee. It also has had its first reading and is awaiting final disposition. An effort will be made to get an early start this evening on account of the volume of business in the hands of clerk of the council Geo. H. Hamilton.

YOU know the best plan to get your shopping done before those frantic days is to take this as your shopping guide. We suggest that you clip out this advertisement, sit down in your home and check over the different lines of useful gift things you want to see. Bring it with you down to the store and have the salespeople show you the merchandise.

You realize that there are thousands of other useful gift things in the store which are not mentioned here.

It is hard to realize that there are only 7 more days to get ready for Christmas. Shop early—early in the morning is better, as the salespeople have more time to wait on you.
